PRESS RELEASE

SUPREME COURT OF VICTORIA LEGAL ACTION BY PLAINTIFF JONATHAN ANDREWS AGAINST DEFENDANTS PROFESSOR BRETT SUTTON & ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MICHELLE GILES, REGARDING RELIABILITY OF COVID-19 'PCR' TESTING.

Plaintiff and Solicitor Mr Jonathan Edward Kingsford Andrews of South Yarra, Melbourne and Principal at Bosanquet Solicitors, lodged a legal suit against the Victoria Government Chief Health Officer and Deputy on 19 August 2021 which was subsequently 'listed', on 24 August 2021. The purpose of the suit is for the Court to examine inter alia:

1. The reliability of 'polymerase chain reaction nucleic acid testing' ("PCR testing") (commonly known as the COVID tests) for checking infectivity rates amongst the population of Victoria, having particular regard to 'false positives' being reported as actual cases as basis for the State Government 'lockdowns'.
3. Whether the Victoria State Government, has used emergency powers, to suspend civil liberties that were based on unreliable medical data and are therefore invalid.

COURT DATES

The defendants were 'process served' the Originating Motion and Affidavit of Jonathan Andrews on 27 August 2021.

No listing date has yet been set by the Court.
